This Practice Audit is part of a comprehensive study of nutrition/dietetics practice being conducted by the Commission on Dietetic Registration to identify existing and new practice roles and to delineate competencies needed to succeed in the marketplace. In order to obtain a complete picture of nutrition/dietetics practice today, it is important that responses are included.

1a. What degree(s) have you earned?
please ☑ all that apply

- nutrition/dietetics-related degrees:
  - doctorate
  - masters
  - bachelors
  - associates

- degrees in other areas:
  - doctorate
  - masters
  - bachelors
  - associates

1b. Of the nutrition/dietetics-related degree(s) you indicated above, which one was the highest nutrition/dietetics-related degree you held at the time you were first registered as an RDN / NDTR? please ☑ only one option

- nutrition/dietetics-related degrees:
  - doctorate
  - masters
  - bachelors
  - associates
  - other

2. To become eligible to take the registration exam for dietitians, you needed to complete both coursework and supervised practice. How did you meet those requirements?

- CP: Coordinated Program (applied once for both coursework and supervised practice)
- DPD + DI/ISPP Didactic Program in Dietetics PLUS a Dietetic Internship or Individualized Supervised Practice Pathway (applied separately)
- other (please specify): ______________________________________________________________________________________________

If you indicated a CP …

a. What degree did you earn from the CP?

  - bachelors
  - masters

If you indicated a DPD …

b. What degree did you earn from the DPD?

  - bachelors
  - masters
  - had a prior college degree, received DPD verification without earning another degree

c. How did you meet the supervised practice requirement?

  - Dietetic Internship, no graduate credit
  - Dietetic Internship, some graduate credit
  - Dietetic Internship granting master degree
  - ISPP (Individualized Supervised Practice Program)